Examinations marked with FFL paper codes are for students registered on the MSc degree in Finance and Financial Law before January 1 2007 and who have NOT transferred to the revised MSc degree in Finance and Financial Law.

Examinations marked with "DFM C3" paper codes are for students registered on the CeFiMS degrees with effect from 1 Jan 2009 or later.

Students must use the full and correct paper codes as indicated above. Students must also state "A", "B", or "C" where applicable, and tick the box under column "Re-sit", if re-entering.

Students should NOT sit the written paper for a course unless they have completed all the compulsory assignments for that course. Students who sit a written paper for a course for which they have an incomplete assignment record will be judged not to have completed the examination and will not receive a mark for their performance in the written paper.
